Tribal Heritage1. Title: Tribal Heritage2. Goal:

- Our college is situated in Tribal and hilly area of Satpura hills.
- To make all round development of the tribal students.
- To uplift the tribal students and empower them through higher education.
- To bring this goal in practice, we formed a committee " Tribal HeritageCommittee"

The committee discusses and plans to develop tribal heritage in campus and outside the campus. Nandurbar District itself was separated from Dhule District in 1998 to facilitate the tribal area people. It has the east- west Satpura ranges at the North -West of Maharashtra containing the Tapi and Narmada Basin. The total population of Akkalkuwa Taluka is approximately 90 % of Schedule Tribes. Due to the lack of transport in this region the prime residential core remain quite long from the improvements.

3. Context: Our College is located in tribal area and the nearby villages are called as "Padas", our teachers go home to home in search of students to provide them higher education and to study the culture of tribal people in order to bring this culture before the world. We have formed this tribal heritage committee where our teachers study customs, rituals and culture of tribal people.

4. Practice:

- To study the tribal culture.
- Our staff members and students are involved in organizing tribal cultural programmes.
- In this tribal heritage committee organizing various programmes and competitions for tribal heritage is the main purpose; some poems are collected in Adiwasli language.
- Committee members also working on Adiwasli festivals like Holi, Diwali and their local festivals.
- The faculty visits Devmogra fair, Kathi, Holi festival (Main festival of Tribal people), Khapar fair and studied customs and rituals of tribal people.

5. Evidence of Success:

The staff members of college are connected with Adiwasli culture, festivals, language etc. which helps in teaching-learning and also helpful for connecting and developing the students.

6. Problems and Resources Required:

The Adiwasli language and barriers in communication is a big problem. On availability of required funds a lot of work will be done by the faculty, such as research in tribal language and literature, geographical location, environment, literacy etc.

3. Context: The Student Development Department of the college works as per the guidelines of University & through this department the workshop on girls student security conducted because tribal girl students are reserved and shy by nature so this workshop on girls security empowers their confidence.
